WHEELER'S RESIGNATION.

He Did Send It In Last Fall, But It Was Held Back.

Washington, D. C., March 10.—

It appears that Gen. Wheeler did tender his resignation last fall. It was dated Nov. 28, at a place called Paniqui, on the island of Luzon, and was not cabled, but came by the slow process of the mails.

Moreover it did not come directly to the War Department, but went to the White House, where it has been reposing since its arrival in Washington. The War Department officials have just learned of it.

The general's resignation was not accepted promptly by the President out of consideration for that officer. Instead he was ordered to report to the War Department at Washington. His resignation will be accepted here and the effect of this action will be to allow the officer his mileage and expenses to Washington. The resignation reads as follows:

"Paniqui, Island of Luzon, the Philippines, Nov. 28, 1899.—To President, Executive Mansion, Washington: Sir—The insurgent government is virtually disbanded; Aguinaldo is a fugitive in the northern provinces; his cabinet and Congress are scattered. The President of the Filipino Congress is here and from what he says I think it will be impossible for this Congress to ever reorganize. The various commands of the insurgent generals are reduced to mere skeletons and fly before us so fast that it is almost impossible to get within gun range.

"I therefore respectfully tender my resignation as an officer in the volunteer forces of the United States. Very respectfully,

JOSEPH WHEELER,

"Brigadier General U. S. V."

A NAVAL SURGEON'S VIEWS.

New York, March 10.—Dr. D. H. Morgan of the United States navy is in this city. He has sent to the navy department a report in which he strongly recommends that the terms of office and men in the naval service on duty in the Philippines shall be made two instead of three years.

"The climate there," said the doctor, "is very enervating, and its results are more seriously felt in the second rather than in the first year. The men can not stand the strain of continuous service there.

"I do not believe that the revolution is at an end. The Filipinos are scattered about the islands, mainly in Luzon, in small bands. But it is generally understood that they are under orders to concentrate at any given point when the word is passed. I do not believe that Aguinaldo is in China. It is my impression that he is still in Luzon.

"I notice much alarm has been manifested in different parts of this country lest the bubonic plague be brought here by the bodies on the Hancock. There is absolutely no reason for the slightest fear. None of the dead on the Hancock died of the plague."

IT WILL NOT SHELL ITSELF.

An oyster combing is typical of the trust idea because the shelling out is one of its primary principles.

JOHN L. POWERS HIDING.

Barboersville, Ky., March 10.—

The warrant for the arrest of John L. Powers was received here today, but Powers could not be found and the warrant was not served. He was seen here this morning, and it is said he received a telegram telling him the warrant had been issued and urging him to stay in the mountains. He immediately left for parts unknown.

At the same time couriers were sent out on horseback over the country calling in the military company. The people of the town are greatly excited over the affair, and one street fight has already occurred. A great many of the soldiers refuse to go, some of them being in hiding.

NATIONAL CAPITAL NEWS.

Foraker Fighting Against Free Trade in the Senate—Early Adjournment Talk.

New York, March 10.—The Herald's Washington special says: Congress may adjourn early. The leaders hope to close business before the beginning of the presidential campaign. There may be delay in the senate.

Mr. Foraker, in charge of the Puerto Rican bill in the senate, is holding out firmly against any more concessions to the advocates of free trade.

No pension bill has yet passed for Liliuokalani. Hear's proposition was laid over.

Secretary of Navy Long would restore to Capt. McCalla the seven numbers he lost through striking an enlisted man with his sword, for his recent services.

Rather than serve as second in command of the Asiatic station, Rear Admiral McCormick applies for retirement.

As a result of developments today, Gen. Wheeler may retain his seat in congress.

Measures have been taken to ascertain the attitude of the British government to the Davis amendment to the Hay-Pauncefote treaty.

WORSE AND WORSE.

Indianapolis Sentinel.

Lafayette B. Swift has risen to the conviction that the Puerto Rican outrage is even worse than McKinley's abrogation of the civil service.

A TROLLY GROWTH.

New York World.

Necessity is also the mother of vocabulary. The Pacific coast trolley has developed the "motor-neer."

She—A married couple should pull together like a team of horses.

He—Yes, and they probably would if like a team of horses they had but one tongue between them.

Chicago News.

THEY ARE COMING TO TEXAS.

They are coming from the deserts of the dim and dusty east, where to raise a stunted turnip is the prospect of a feast; where the farms are made of gravel, and they plow with dynamite, where the festive chattle mortgage its dirge by day and night; they are coming on the train, they are coming from the regions where they struggled long in vain; they are coming from the cabin, they are coming from the hall; they are coming down to Texas where there's room enough for all. They are coming from the Southland, they are coming from the North; from the valleys and the mountains—they in droves are coming forth; they are coming with their wives, they are coming with their hammer and their needles and their knives; with their harrows and their platters, and their pencils and their guns; they are coming with their fathers and their mothers and their sons. They are coming stout and strong, they are coming short and tall; they are coming now to Texas where there's plenty for them all; where you needn't dig potatoes with a sabre or dirk, where when rain is badly needed then the rain gets in its work; where the rivers mourn and murmur on their journey to the sea; where the breezed tackle corn stalks big as fence posts on the sea; where the savage lately wandered on his search for human hair, with his hoarse and howling war cry floating on the summer air; where a hundred braves would answer to the chief-tain's battle call; they are coming still to Texas where there's plenty for them all; where the savages used to wander yearning for a crop of hair; now the farmer takes his porker to the nearest county fair, and how the corn is really growing where the bloody wigwag stood, where he burned the wailing captive how the poultry scatters for food; and the people who are coming to this pleasant land of climates, show a happy knack of keeping up with the progress of the times; they will find a country brimming from the springtime to the fall, when they lead in sunny Texas where there's plenty for them all.—Texas Railway News and Illustrator.

AN IMPORTANT MEETING.

The St. Louis Globe Democrat says: "Mr. George Gould, who is now at Palm Beach, Fla., will meet President Rouse of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas, and President C. P. Huntington of the Southern Pacific in Texas within the next ten days to consider various matters of joint interest in the southwest."

Miss Pepprey—Why, she doesn't look as if she knew her own name!

Miss Newitt—She doesn't half the time.

Miss Pepprey—Really?

Miss Newitt—Yes, you know she married a polish nobleman.
